

Hats That Paris Sponsors Arrive at Saks

Here are four Paris hats, sketched by a French artist at the fashionable Ritz Hotel of Paris. The original models of these hats are now on exhibition in the Millinery Department.

They are part of a group of imported hats which have just arrived, and which are startling, not only for their new fashion features, but because of their reasonable prices:

12.50 to 25.00

The corner Parisienne of the sketch wears one of the smaller black Hatter's Plush hats with a sharply fluted brim at one side and long ostrich plume at the other....18.50

A large black velvet hat with lines so smoothly draped they fairly run into one another is shown on the second figure.....15.00

The very important decoration, known as choue, decorates the fourth hat, of navy panne velvet combined with gray .....25.00

A Special Sale of Misses' Silk Frocks at 15.00

None Sent C. O. D., Exchanged or Credited.

The ever-changing mode clings to the never-changing favor of silk crepes—spiral crepe, crepe de Chine and crepe satin. One model combines the flare for the circular skirt with the new drape, and enlivens the whole frock with a colorful trimming of two rows of contrasting colored grosgrain ribbon with little pearl buttons running down the front. Another frock features the loose, pleated panels, and still others present diversions of trimmings in ten distinct models, two of which are illustrated. They come in navy, brown and black, and in sizes 14 to 18 years.
